

WIC Participant Role (make up information to complete the following statement and share with the group):

Something I'm very concerned about with my child's eating is _____ and how she _____.

WIC Participant Role (make up information to complete the following statement and share with the group):

Since my last WIC appointment, one thing I've really focused on doing is _____ which has helped with _____.

WIC Participant Role (make up information to complete the following statement and share with the group):

Since I've been pregnant, I've experienced _____ which is making it harder to _____.

WIC Participant Role (make up information to complete the following statement and share with the group):

The best part about coming to WIC has been _____ which has really been great for _____.

WIC Participant Role (make up information to complete the following statement and share with the group):

I've been very tired since the baby's had colic, and it's affecting my _____.