

Hepatitis Resources

Idaho Viral Hepatitis Prevention Program 2016

American Liver Foundation

<http://www.liverfoundation.org/>

This website provides education about all liver diseases, including viral hepatitis. AFL produces brochures and other educational resources which are available from the website as electronic documents. Counselors are available via phone Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. (EST); 7:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. (MST).
1-800-465-4837

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Division of Viral Hepatitis

<http://www.cdc.gov/hepatitis/>

The CDC website provides information on hepatitis A, B, C, D, and E along with downloadable factsheets.

Hepatitis B Foundation

<http://www.hepb.org/>

This website provides information on hepatitis B, treatment options, patient support, research and education. Many materials are available in Chinese, Vietnamese, Korean, and Spanish.

Hepatitis B Moms

<http://www.hepbmoms.org/>

This is a unique online resource for pregnant mothers, perinatal hepatitis B prevention program coordinators, healthcare providers, and anyone who is concerned about hepatitis B. There are interactive discussion boards, latest up-to-date information, news related to hepatitis B in your area, downloadable videos and educational materials. The website is available in Chinese, Vietnamese, Spanish and Korean.

HCV Advocate

<http://hcvadvocate.org/>

This website provides unbiased information, support, and advocacy to all communities affected by HCV and HIV/HCV co-infection, including medical providers.

Hepatitis C Helpline

<http://www.help4hep.org/>

The Hepatitis C Helpline is a national toll-free peer-to-peer helpline where specially trained counselors work with patients to meet the challenges of hepatitis C.
877-HELP-4-HEP (877-435-7443).

Updated March 2016

Hepatitis C Support and Resources

<http://www.hepcnet.net/>

This website offers information on nutrition and hepatitis C, hepatitis C tests, scoring systems for chronic liver disease, and a comprehensive list of frequently asked questions.

Hepatitis Foundation International

<http://www.hepatitisfoundation.org/>

HFI provides education, training programs, and materials for the public, patients, educators, and medical professionals about liver wellness and the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of viral hepatitis. 1-800-891-0707

HIV and Hepatitis Treatment Advocates

<http://www.hivandhepatitis.com/>

Website includes information on treatment, management and prevention of HIV, hepatitis B and C, HIV/HBV and HIV/HVC coinfection and related conditions.

Immunization Action Coalition

<http://www.immunize.org/>

This site offers comprehensive immunization information for health professionals and the general.

Know More Hepatitis

<http://www.cdc.gov/knowmorehepatitis/>

Know More Hepatitis, is a national education campaign developed by CDC's Division of Viral Hepatitis to decrease the burden of chronic viral hepatitis. The campaign is aimed at increasing awareness about this hidden epidemic and encouraging people who may be chronically infected with hepatitis C to get tested.

National Alliance of State and Territorial AIDS Directors (NASTAD)

<http://www.hepprograms.org/>

This website provides information on the many programs working across the United States to prevent hepatitis A, B, or C in people who are at risk for infection

This website includes programs across the United States that work to prevent hepatitis A, B, or C in people who are at risk for infection. The site features general information on hepatitis B and A vaccinations, special topics related to viral hepatitis, and links to other organizations and resources.

National Center for Contemporary and Alternative Medicine

<https://nccih.nih.gov/health/hepatitisc>

This website provides information on complementary and alternative medicine for individuals with hepatitis C, in addition to information on ongoing medical studies for health professionals.

Parents of Kids with Infectious Diseases

<http://www.pkids.org/>

This website provides information on a whole host of infectious disease, including hepatitis, for parents and professionals.

Veterans Affairs National Hepatitis C

<http://www.hepatitis.va.gov/>

This website provides information on hepatitis C and for those just recently diagnosed to understand testing options, treatment decisions and resources.