

Vaccination Information for Idaho Post-Secondary Institutions and Students

The Idaho State Board of Education requires that post-secondary institutions in Idaho provide current information on vaccine-preventable disease to each student at the time of admission or enrollment for classes. The Idaho Immunization Program has developed this document to serve as an informational resource to Idaho's post-secondary institutions and students attending these institutions.

Listed below are the main vaccination related items post-secondary institutions must share with students. The links listed after each item will connect you to the appropriate information.

1. Vaccine preventable disease symptoms and risks, including those risks associated with group living arrangements for adolescents and adults.
