

Idaho Crisis Centers

Idaho's Behavioral Health Community Crisis Centers (BHCCCs) provide services to adults in need of mental health and/or substance use disorder crisis services. The BHCCCs are open 24/7 to assist adults 18 and older in crisis to become stabilized and connect them with community resources to help them effectively deal with their situations and avoid further crises.

1

North Idaho Crisis Center

2195 Ironwood Court, Suite D Coeur d'Alene, Idaho 83814

www.nicrisiscenter.org

(208) 625-4884

2

Western Idaho Community Crisis Center

524 Cleveland Blvd.

Caldwell, Idaho 83605

(208) 402-1044

3

Pathways Community Crisis Center of Southwest Idaho

7192 Potomac Drive

Boise, Idaho 83704

www.pcccsi.com

(208) 489-8311

4

Crisis Center of South Central Idaho

570 Shoup Avenue West

Twin Falls, Idaho 83301

www.ccosci.org

(208) 772-7825

5

Behavioral Health Community Crisis Center of East Idaho

1650 N. Holmes Avenue

Idaho Falls, Idaho 83401

www.eastidahocrisis.com

Funding has been approved to create additional crisis centers in Lewiston and Pocatello.

If you are in crisis and are unable to visit a crisis center, call the Idaho Suicide Prevention Hotline at 208-398-HELP (4357)