

Regional Contact Information and for Assistance in Locating a Developmental Disability Agency

Developmental Disability Agencies (DDA's) are certified entities that provide community benefits to children and adults with developmental disabilities. Families will need to identify and choose a DDA that will provide services to their child. A Guide to Selecting a DDA is available on the Department's Children's Developmental Disabilities website to assist families in things to think about and identifies potential questions to present when choosing a DDA.

To request a list of DDA's in your area please contact the Regional Administrative staff listed below. Your Case Manager is also available to assist you in identifying DDA's that are within the Region you live that may be able to meet the needs of you and your family. Please contact them directly for further guidance.
