Does the resident currently exhibit behaviors distressing to self or that infringe on the rights of others?

- Yes: Behavior Plan is required
- No: Does resident currently take any psychotropic medications?

  - Yes: Is the medication being used to manage current or past behaviors?
    - Yes: Behavior Plan is required
    - No: Behavior Plan is not required
  - No: Behavior Plan is not required

However, the following are required:

1. For all psychotropic medications, the facility must have a physician order stating the exact purpose of the medication
2. Facility caregivers and nurse must monitor and document the effectiveness of the medication and any side effects
3. Facility nurse must document the physician was notified of effectiveness of the medication and any side effects