BROOKS W. BAER, MA, LCPC, LMFT

Brooks is a licensed Professional Counselor and a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist who has been involved in the mental health field for over 25 years. He has well over 20,000 therapy hours and has conducted over 5,000 diagnostic interviews in emergency department settings. Since 2006, Brooks has taught seminars to more than 8,000 mental health professionals across the country. He currently splits his time between an Emergency Crisis Response Team and teaching. Brooks brings you the latest research regarding both therapy and neuroscience; using his extensive clinical experience, he is able to translate that information into useful principles that can be used every day.
