

Module A, Section 4 Activity: Making the Shift

Instructions: After reading each scenario, write a brief statement about how you would respond as a Support Broker.

Scenarios	Making the Shift
Stacy wants to learn to ski. She has very limited mobility and uses a wheel chair for movement. Her aunt feels that activities like skiing are far too dangerous. The family does not know anyone who skis and they do not know anything about assistive technology devices that may assist Stacy.	My Voice, My Choice: Write your response here.
Philip likes books. Above all else, he loves for people to read to him. Currently, no one in his family likes to read. He lives in an apartment with two roommates. A care provider comes to help out twice a day. But the care provider says that she can not take the time to read stories to Philip. The agency that supports Philip says that they do not get reimbursed for supporting leisure activities.	My Voice, My Choice: Write your response here.
Kyle is a 23 year old man who wants to work with plants. He likes to grow things. At home, he has many potted plants and cares for them well. Currently, he is working four hours a day stocking shelves in a paint store. He is very unhappy with his job.	My Voice, My Choice: Write your response here.
