

State of Idaho Certificate for the Microbiological Analysis of Drinking Water Teton County Water Laboratory

465 E. Pearl
Jackson, WY 83001
EPA: WY00934

Based on the most recent assessment, proficiency testing results and compliance with the Fifth Edition of the "Manual for the Certification of Laboratories Analyzing Drinking Water" Supplement 2 with addendums and IDAPA 16.02.13, Teton County Water Laboratory is granted reciprocity with the State of Idaho for environmental monitoring under the Safe Drinking Water Act and is authorized to perform the following methods for the analytes listed.

Method	Analyte
SM9223B	Total coliform for RTCR by Enzyme Substrate (Colilert®, Colilert-18®) Presence/Absence
SM9223B	E. coli for RTCR by Enzyme Substrate (Colilert®, Colilert-18®) Presence/Absence

This certification is in effect until January 31st, 2021 as long as Teton County Water Laboratory maintains Certification by the Environmental Protection Agency for the state of Wyoming.

Christopher Ball, Ph.D., HCLD (ABB)
Certification Authority for the State of Idaho

IDAHO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH & WELFARE