

AREA AGENCIES ON AGING

Find your local Area Agency on Aging.
See contact information →

Another way to make a report to APS is by contacting your local Area Agency on Aging.

← See map

Adult Protective Services

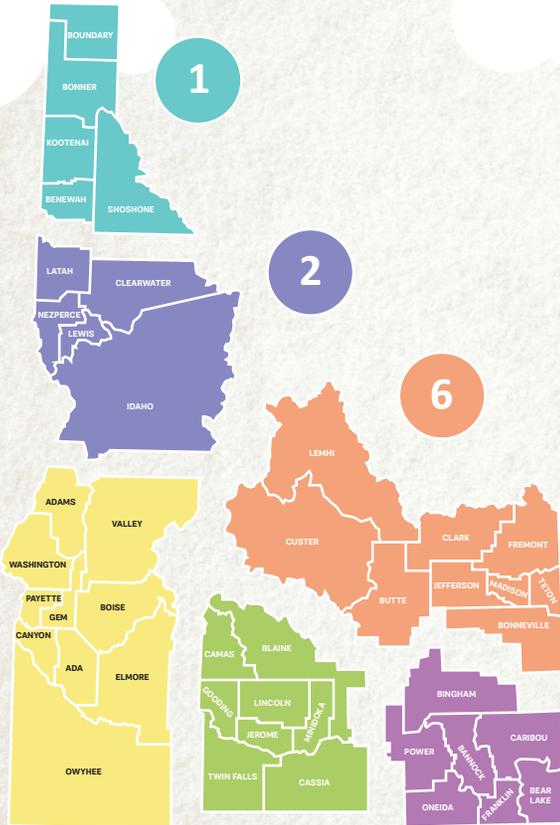

CONTACT YOUR LOCAL AGENCY

MANDATED REPORTING

Help provide for the safety and protection of vulnerable adults

- 1 Area 1 — North
aaani.org
208-667-3179 or 1-800-786-5536
- 2 Area 2 — North Central
cap4action.org/program/area-agency-on-aging
208-743-5580 or 1-800-877-3206
- 3 Area 3 — Southwest
a3ssa.com
208-898-7060 or 1-844-850-2883
- 4 Area 4 — South Central sites.google.com/site/csiofficeonaging/
208-736-2122 or 1-800-574-8656
- 5 Area 5 — Southeast
sicog.org/aaa-home
208-233-4032 or 1-800-526-8129
- 6 Area 6 — East
eastidahoaging.com
eicap.org/programs/senior
208-522-5391 or 1-800-632-4813

Call 911 or your local law enforcement agency if someone needs emergency assistance or is in a life-threatening situation.

MANDATED REPORTERS

In Idaho, professions obligated to report include any:

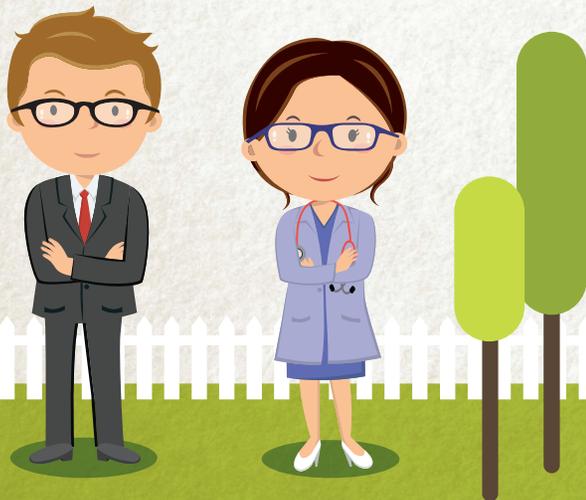

VULNERABLE ADULT MALTREATMENT

Maltreatment of a vulnerable adult refers to any abuse, neglect, exploitation, or self-neglect against a person who is 18 years of age or older and who is unable to protect himself or herself due to physical or mental impairments.

A mandated reporter is a person who, due to his or her profession, has a legal duty to report any suspected maltreatment of a vulnerable adult.

*Any employee of a public or private health facility, state licensed or certified residential facility serving vulnerable adults (IC 39-5303).

Officers and employees of financial institutions may report maltreatment of a vulnerable adult (IC 39-5303) (15 U.S.C. 6802).

REPORTING

Online reporting to Adult Protective Services (APS) is available to mandatory reporters and employees of financial institutions at: aging.idaho.gov/apsreport.

Online reports to APS will ask for the following information:

1. The age of the vulnerable adult
2. The type of maltreatment suspected
3. Incident information
4. Contact information of the person reporting

Anonymous reports are not accepted through online reporting.

Any person making a report to APS is immune from civil or criminal liability if the report is provided in good faith (IC 39-5303).

In Idaho, mandatory reporters who fail to report maltreatment of a vulnerable adult may be convicted of a misdemeanor (IC 39-5303).