Diane Nielsen 208-529-8610

Living Independently For Everyone

Diane has worked with LIFE, Inc. for over 18 years and has been called upon to provide attendant care, personal care, homemaker services, and respite care. She has worked in some capacity of caregiving for over 30 years. Diane has also taken care of her Dad and Sister and considers herself to be a natural born caregiver. She has compassion and has great listening and communication skills. She enjoys working with people and takes great pride in the achievements – no matter how big or small- that she and the person with a disability that she is working with are able to accomplish. Diane has lived in the Idaho Falls area the majority of her life and has 4 kids and 5 grandchildren. She loves spending time with her family, reading, and enjoying the mountains and the ocean.
